

When it comes to Date Rape, this is a symbol of the attitude that exists today. Although you won't find this card in a store, it represents how we ignore the seriousness of Date Rape. While the law is clear on what forms consent, there are some who still claim a grey area exists. They're wrong. And so is every guy who used alcohol as an excuse, every guy who thought things got just a little out of hand, and every guy who wasn't absolutely sure consent was given.

Sex without consent is rape. And it's a crime.
